Soldiers at Galveston Ordered to Posts 1,500 at San Diego,
California.

Washington, D. C., June 9.—The second step in the gradual withdrawal of armed forces of the United States from the vicinity of Mexico was taken to-day. President Taft approved the war department order which will return to their posts four thousand soldiers at Galveston, Texas, and fifteen hundred at San Diego, California. This movement, which will begin in a few days, follows the withdrawal of two thousand and marines from Guantanamo, Cuba. The improved situation in Mexico has made this withdrawal possible.

He asked that an expression of his sympathy be communicated to his people.

RICH MAN SHOT.

French Maid Formerly Employed In His Family, Arrested.

San Francisco, June 9.—Frederick Kohl, a capitalist, was shot and probably fatally wounded yesterday by Miss Adele Verge, a French maid, until recently employed by Mr. Kohl's wife. The shooting occurred in the corridor of the Grant building in which the superior courts are housed. Mr. Kohl went there as a witness in a suit brought by Miss Verge against him and Frank A. Miller, a hotel manager at Riverside, for malicious persecution. The suit which led to yesterday's tragedy was the outgrowth of a quarrel between Miss Verge and a chauffeur and the woman's discharge from Mrs. Kohl's service. Miss Verge alleged that Mr. Kohl and Mr. Miller had prevented her from obtaining employment. The case against Kohl was dismissed Wednesday and yesterday he went to the superior court as a witness in the case against Mr. Miller.

After court adjourned, Miss Verge descended to the main entrance and when Mr. Kohl emerged from the elevator, she drew a revolver from the folds of her skirt and fired. The bullet entered just below the heart and the surgeons at the Central Emergency hospital said his condition was critical. On the operating table, Mr. Kohl retained consciousness and said he freely forgave the woman for her act. Miss Verge was so hysterical that she was unable to make a coherent statement to the police, who took her in charge.

Mr. Kohl is one of the richest men in San Francisco.

New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., June 9.—Governor Bass has appointed John S. B. Davis of 39 Laurel street, this city, as labor commissioner, and the new official was sworn in last night.

Mr. Davis has filled all of the offices of the local moulder's union, was president of the Concord Labor union for five terms and has been president of the State Federation of Labor since the last convention. Mr. Spillane is now vice president.

SPAIN'S PLANS IN MOROCCO.

French Government Concerned Over Activities.

Madrid, June 9.—Premier Canalejas to-day informed the chamber of deputies that Spain's projected military operations at El Araish, Morocco, were in consistent with the treaty of Algiers or other agreements. It is understood that the government plans the occupation of Tetuan, Morocco, because Spanish subjects have been killed or maltreated by rebellious tribesmen. The French government is concerned over the Spanish activities.

LOVE-CRAZY MAN
SHOT YOUNG WOMANMiss Christine Shaw, Orono, Me., High School Teacher, Will Probably Recover From Her Injury.

Orono, Me., June 9.—While returning from a dance in the Orono town hall last night, Miss Christine Shaw, aged 25 years, a teacher in the Orono high school, was shot in the head by a revolver, and a mob, attracted by the shooting, ran down T. S. Linn, a Chinese government student at the university of Maine, who was taken to Bangor, charged with the shooting.

It is said that Linn was infatuated with Miss Shaw for over a year and had been despondent after the failure of his suit. He is 30 years old and in his junior year at the university.

At the Eastern Maine General hospital, where Miss Shaw was removed, the surgeons say that her chance of recovery is good. Four shots were fired at her, it is charged, only one of which took effect. That struck behind the left ear and lodged just over the right eye.

Miss Shaw, accompanied by her brother and younger sister, after an evening of dancing, were returning home and were crossing a bridge, not far from their home, when, it is alleged, Linn ran up from behind and opened fire with a 32-calibre revolver. The first three shots went wild, but the fourth lodged in the head, sending Miss Shaw unconscious to the floor of the bridge.

Dr. Sanger, a Bangor physician, who was passing, ran at once to the aid of the stricken young woman, while a crowd that had been at the dance, ran after the fleeing Chinaman. Within a few minutes he was overtaken, and brought to the Orono fire station. There he collapsed and, it is claimed, pretended to have taken poison, but physicians could discover no traces of any drug. A revolver was found upon him with four chambers empty.

Shortly after midnight he was removed to Bangor by Sheriff White and locked up.

HELD UNDER $2,000 BAIL.

Alexander Bisset, or Brown, in Burlington City Court.

Burlington, June 9.—After a hearing on the charge of assault on his father-in-law, James Hammond, with intent to commit murder, Alexander Bisset, or Brown, was bound over to county court yesterday afternoon in the sum of $2,000. Right along Bisset had persisted in asserting his innocence, but when the judge announced the amount of the bail the respondent said he was ready to have the state's attorney file an information against him. One of the witnesses at the hearing, Dr. E. F. Murray, testified that a cut in Hammond's head went to the skull and measured two and a half inches in length.

Mrs. Brown told on the stand that she intervened during the quarrel between her husband and her father just as Brown was going to bring an axe down on Hammond's head, thus taking part of the blow, or "it would cut him in two," she said.

Pittsburg, and a Dozen Business Firms Lost Their Effects.

INVITED OUT OF TOWN.

Robert Lee Given Chance to Leave Burlington; He Did.

Burlington, June 9.—Robert Lee played a return engagement at city court yesterday forenoon this being his first appearance since he enacted the part of a plain drunk there a few days ago. Lee's term in the jail expired the day before and he immediately got into escape.

He told Chief Niles of the fire department that he was formerly a fireman in Boston and said that he had some funds coming to him from that source and asked the chief to telegraph for them. This was done and it was found that there were no such people in Boston and Chief Niles was out the price of the telegram.

Then Lee tried to raise a little money and sympathy, calling at the parsonage of the Methodist church in his wanderings. He finally went to the police station and solemnly there placed him in jail. Judge Palmer yesterday morning sentenced him to pay a fine of $15 and costs and to serve 30 days in jail. This would mean all summer for Lee and he appeared nervous so nervous in fact that when the court told him he would be allowed 24 hours in which to leave town, he left with 23 hours and 10 minutes to spare, taking the first Essex Junction car which came along.

ANOTHER FINE FLIGHT

Mass., Last Night.

BODY FOUND
IN THE LAKEGeorge Goodwin of Burlington
Lost Life While Fishing

IN BURLINGTON'S HARBOR

He Was Near Another Fisherman In Boat but Latter Did Not Notice
His Disappearance—Man May Have Had a Fit.

Burlington, June 9.—The body of George Goodwin, who was drowned while fishing in Lake Champlain yesterday afternoon, was recovered to-day. Goodwin was fishing south of Stearn's pier. Goodwin was in the habit of going fishing regularly and yesterday left on his usual trip. He fished during the afternoon a few hundred feet from Ephraim Mercer and the men were accustomed to call to each other when they landed a fish. Both boats were situated two or three hundred yards from the shore, where the water is supposed to be from eight to ten feet deep. Goodwin was also seen in the boats by two boys, Ralph Wilkes and Howard Heffon of this city. They looked up about half past five and saw no one in the boat and called to Mercer and both rowed at once for Goodwin's boat. No one was in it, but his hat was floating not far away. In the boat was his pipe, a string of fish and fishing paraphernalia.

Goodwin was a man about 35 years of age and a brother of Joseph Goodwin of this city. He had been employed in different capacities about the city, working a considerable time in lumber yards. He was subject to epileptic fits and by many it is thought that he was stricken with one of these and fell overboard.

W. H. S. GRADUATION.

Class Day Exercises Yesterday Afternoon, Grammar School in Evening.

Waterbury, June 9.—Nature continues to smile on the festivities of commencement. Yesterday afternoon a large number of the parents and friends of the class of 1911, W. H. S., gathered at the high school building to listen to the class day exercises. They were exceptionally good, each doing his or her part in fine style. The room was beautifully decorated with plants and cut flowers, while the class banner had a conspicuous place.

The following is the program as rendered: March, Flora Morse; selection, Glee club; class poem, Hazel Agnes Foss; piano solo, Flora Boyce; president's address, R. Blaine Wallace; response from the juniors, Carl Hoadley; selection, glee club, with solos by Kathleen LeBaron, Mildred Reed, Susie Manning and Greta Perkins; W. H. S. nurses' rhymes, Mabel Watts; presentation of picture of capital at Washington by Elythe May Boyce; acceptance by Principal Rheimer; violin solo, Norma Perkins; class play, Elmina Watts; class ode, sung by class, composed by Amy Wheeler.

Last evening the Methodist church was packed for the graduating exercises of the grammar school. Each number was creditably done and although there were twenty numbers on the program, the attention of the audience was well kept.

This evening the graduating exercises of the class of the high school will be held in the Methodist church. Music will be furnished by the Orpheus club, under the direction of George H. Wilder.

PERHAPS FATALLY HURT.

Oscar F. Young Knocked From Roller
Coaster at Revere.

Revere, Mass., June 9.—Rising to his feet to caution a passenger on a roller coaster to beware of a dangerous course, Oscar F. Young, assistant manager and treasurer of the company, who was acting as one of the crew, was knocked from his seat, late last night and run over by the car. Both legs were broken and the man was practically dismembered.

The accident occurred high up on the coaster in plain view of many of the pleasure seekers on the Revere beach boulevard and a near panic resulted. Crowds surged about the place and when the ambulance corps arrived it was compelled to climb up the trestle to remove the man's body.

Taken to the Frost hospital, it was found necessary to amputate one of the man's legs and no hope of his recovery is entertained. He was 25 years of age and unmarried and lived in Revere.

As a result of the accident, coupled with the fact that there has been one death on the coaster previously this year, the selection of Revere held a special meeting last night and revoked the license of the roller coaster company.

PATHETIC SIDE OF BANK CLOSING

Birkbeck Institution Held Life Savings of Many Elderly Persons.

London, June 9.—The stock exchange was practically inactivated to-day by the suspension of the Birkbeck bank yesterday with total liabilities of over $43,000,000. Pathetic scenes were witnessed about the suspended institution. Many of the depositors were elderly persons, whose life savings were behind the closed doors. An authoritative statement, issued to-day by the directors, to the effect that the bulk of deposits was amply secured, had a reassuring effect.

Attention Knights of Pythias. Brothers: We are invited by the Montpelier lodge to join them, for the purpose of attending divine worship, at the Baptist church in Montpelier, Sunday, June 11. All Knights please make a special effort to attend. Take the 9-15 car from Barre. By request of C. C.

ALIENATION SUIT
SETTLED OUT OF COURT$2,500 and Certain Concessions Are Said to Be Basis for Discontinuing
Case of Oliver Jenness vs.
Walter Simpson.

St. Johnsbury, June 9.—The twice-tried and twice-reversed case of Oliver Jenness vs. Walter Simpson, for alienation of affections of Mrs. Jenness, was settled out of court this morning. This was just as it was to go to trial for a third time. This result followed the calling of Tore Tiegen, an attorney from South Dakota, to St. Johnsbury to testify, Mrs. Jenness having taken up her residence in that state, followed by Simpson, it was alleged.

On the coming in of court counsel for the defendant asked for time in which to consider the settlement out of court. Judge Hall gladly granted the request and encouraged the counsel to make a settlement if possible. In the afternoon, counsel for the defendant reported that the case had been settled and discontinued. The bail amounting to $2,500 was surrendered. Since bail was fixed at that sum, the defendant has not been a resident within the limits of the United States and consequently the amount of the bail was all that there was to answer to the former verdict of over $100,000.

It was a hard-fought case, having for counsel on both sides some of the ablest lawyers in northern Vermont. The settlement is understood to be a payment to the plaintiff of about $2,500 and also some concessions with regard to certain deeds of land. The settlement of this one case doubtless shortened this term of court two weeks.

At the hearing between Helen E. Ellis and John S. Ellis, on the question of alimony, the court ordered Mr. Ellis to pay the petitioner, his wife, the sum of $5 per week for the support of herself and minor child and also a stipulated sum to be paid her before the final hearing of divorce, which is pending a hearing at this term of court.

Owing to the inexperience of a large expense in getting witnesses from out the state, the important case of Webster and Harris, administrators of the estate of Eber W. Cobleigh, vs. Frank C. Lynch, to recover for certain bonds, was set for definite trial on Monday afternoon, June 10, at 2 o'clock. Following this case the case of Martha Mason, executrix vs. The New England Telephone and Telegraph company is assigned. Other cases will be taken up in their order.

Yesterday a jury was empaneled in the case of V. W. Rand, collector for the village of Hardwick vs. W. W. Marshall. Briefly stated this case was brought by the town of Hardwick to recover rents on electric lights furnished by it to the defendant for the purpose of lighting the defendant's tenements.

IDENTIFIES PRISONER.

As Young Man Who Is Wanted In Several New England Cities.

Burlington, June 9.—An agent of the William J. Burns national detective agency arrived at the Van Ness house from Boston last evening to handle for the agency—the case of the alleged forger, Frederick Johnson, alias Wilber Hardy, who is now in the jail awaiting trial for passing a check, said to be that of the Van Ness house. The detective, who specializes in forgery, has been on the trail of Johnson since last February and shows an intimate knowledge of everything that the man has done for a number of years past.

The prisoner was identified to-day by the detective as the man wanted for passing worthless checks in New England.

According to the agent, Johnson is wanted in Boston in several places and after getting a check book from his employer Michael Callahan, he went to work writing checks. He showed a strong liking for the Bohemian life. His first efforts were upon his landlady in Boston and in the downtown cafes but there he was usually successful. He then took to traveling and did up Portland, Me., where he is said to have passed two checks in a grocery store. Then the American Bankers' association, by whom the detective agency is employed, heard from him in Nantucket, New Bedford, Fall River, Providence, and finally in the United Cigar stores in New York. Then he made a short stay in Hartford, Conn., and many other places and finally here.

GIRL'S DEATH
MAKES MURDERMae Labelle, Aged 19, Died at Hospital Today

CRIME AT ESSEX JUNCTION

Arthur Bosworth, Aged 26, Is Under Arrest at Chittenden County Jail,
Charged with Shooting Girl
Wednesday Afternoon.

Burlington, June 9.—Mae Labelle, aged 19, who was shot on the Central Vermont station platform at Essex Junction Wednesday afternoon, died at the Fanny Allen hospital to-day. Arthur Bosworth, or Dorworth, who is charged with doing the shooting, is under arrest in Chittenden county jail here, having been captured immediately after the shooting. The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Labelle of Railroad avenue in Essex Junction.

Bosworth is alleged to have shot the girl because she spurned his attentions and because he claimed she was in part responsible for the loss of his position at the Johnson hotel, where she also was employed at kitchen maid. Bosworth finished his work at the hotel last Monday having been employed there only six weeks. He claimed that he walked to Essex Junction from Montpelier, was without food and funds. When he applied for a job he impressed the proprietor rather favorably and was given a position. He is about 26 years old and says he is a native of England.

The Labelle girl was shot in the face, breast and side, four bullets being found. She has remained in a very low condition ever since the shooting, and yesterday State's Attorney Shaw went to the hospital and got her ante-mortem statement. The official has also secured statements from others regarding the shooting.

LOOKING FOR HIS BROTHER.

He Must Have Got Hurt in the Search
as He Was Bleeding.

Deputy Sheriff H. D. Camp arrested a man in the Barre railroad yards this afternoon and locked him up on the charge of intoxication. The man had either been in a scrap or had injured himself in a fall. One side of his face was badly bruised and bleeding. He was in his shirt sleeves and looked as though he had just come from work. The officer could get nothing out of him except that he said he was looking for his brother, who lives in Orange.

COLLEGE PRO

Vermont State Library

Of Socialism of the Present Day—Prof.
Arner of Dartmouth.

Socialism, as it appears in its manifold aspects to a professor in one of the leading eastern colleges, was discussed in Forester's hall last evening before a small gathering of Socialists and invited guests of the Socialist club. Perhaps there were forty persons who availed themselves of the opportunity to listen to George Byron Louis Arner of the department of economics at Dartmouth college. Certainly the number did not exceed forty, although Prof. Arner's able presentation of his subject "Socialism vs. Reform," was deserving of a much larger audience.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, Alfred Henry of the Socialist club introduced the speaker. Not presuming to boast of any rare oratorical gifts, Prof. Arner nevertheless discussed the issue in a manner that compelled the closest attention of his hearers for over an hour. He spoke substantially as follows: "It is not my purpose tonight to tell you that capitalist society is corrupt, inefficient, unjust or rotten. Socialists do not need to tell you that. You know it already. The burning question in the minds of nine-tenths of the thinking people of this country and Europe is, 'What shall we do to be saved?'"

Socialism numbers among its enemies those persons who are continually administering the kind of knocks that only boost. These opponents are of the radical type and actually help rather than hinder the propaganda. There are, however, two classes of critics of Socialism, who are more plausible in their arguments. The first is the benevolent capitalist who sees the poverty, misery and crime in society and honestly desires to make the world better. Capitalists are not all monsters of iniquity. They build model tenements, libraries, gymnasiums and clubhouses, but sometimes the serfs are not grateful to their feudal lords. They resent being looked upon as objects of charity and demand the rights of men. In reality this sort of reform doesn't deceive the working man for a minute.

The second class of Socialism's critics might be called social reformers. They agree thoroughly with the Socialist indictment of the present system, but tell you that the same result can be brought about gradually. They take the attitude of Karl Schurz that there are many social problems. There is nothing fundamentally wrong with the present system; it simply needs patching up. They advocate every possible social, economic and political reform and are usually specialists. And yet they laugh at you for throwing away your vote on the Socialist candidates who cannot be elected, when you might vote for the better of the two other parties. This is probably the commonest of all attitudes toward all social questions.

Socialism is unified and consistently progressive. Socialists have a common aim and ideal and this gives to the movement a religious enthusiasm which no isolated reform movement can have. Reform movements have no common aim and are as likely to be reactionary as progressive. Socialism has a definite standard by which to measure the value of a reform. If it's in line with the demonstrated cause of social evolution, and will strengthen and unite the working class in its effort to attain industrial Democracy, then it is adopted as a plank in our platform. Socialism does not appeal to self interest; it appeals to class interest and the interest of humanity through that of a class.

$2,000 ADDED
TO ENDOWMENTThrough Bequest From Will of Major L. A. Abbott

TO GODDARD SEMINARY FUND

Trustees Will Be Able to Report at Commencement Next Week That School's Total Endowment
Is Now $120,000.

The trustees of Goddard seminary have just received word that the seminary was a beneficiary to the extent of $2,000 by the will of the late Major L. A. Abbott, who died in Aberdeen, Washington, and left the bulk of his property to found a home for the aged at the Abbott home place in Barre Town. There are no considerations to the gift.

This was not the only evidence of Major Abbott's interest in Goddard, as he had from time to time given smaller donations, including some money contributions, several large pictures and a stained glass window in the Thompson Memorial building. His interest in the school was perhaps attracted because of his relationship to Miss Peris Thompson, who was for many years a preceptress in the institution. Major Abbott and Miss Thompson were cousins.

With this amount, it will be possible to announce at commencement next week that the endowment fund of the school now amounts to $120,000, which is very strong financial backing for a secondary educational institution like Goddard. Since last September, Goddard has received four bequests, totaling $8,000—one of $5,000, the Abbott gift of
